

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 765389.

Spaces of Possibility confex – draft programme of the conference

Monday 7th of June 2021

[Note: All times are displayed for Central European Time (CET) Zone]

[Note: Further detailed information, including full abstracts for all parallel sessions will be made available in mid-May]

09.30 - 10.20 (CET)	Welcome and introduction to the confex Spaces of Possibility by Alex Franklin (project leader RECOMS) Keynote 1 – [Details to be confirmed/announced soon]
10.20 - 10.30 (CET)	Short coffee break
10.30 - 12.00 (CET)	Session 1 – “Did you hear me?” Power and justice in urban food governance. Chair: To be confirmed Where’s the power? Exploring the urban food governance network in Almere (Anke Brons, Sigrid Wertheim-Heck and Peter Oosterveer) Evaluating urban food policy implementation by considering food initiatives as living indicators: A case study in Groningen (Sara Smaal, Joost Dessen, Barend Wind and Elke Rogge) Food justice as a theoretical framework for studying urban gardening in Germany (Julija Bakunowitsch)	Session 2 – “We are so sorry.” The shadow side of good intentions. Chair: To be confirmed Could the path to sustained inequality be paved with good socio-environmental intentions? (Scott Fontaine) Gender Sensitivity in Local NGOs Peacebuilding Initiatives in Nigeria’s Niger Delta Region (Abosede Omowumi Babatunde) A theoretical framework of visions and identities in the smart city (Sara Zaman)	Workshop 1 - Nantes Futrable : Science fiction games as a research tool to draw collective measures related to climate change. Organizers: Claire Planchat, Joachim Muller, Alice Mounissamy and Eve Barlier	Roundtable 1 - The researcher as political mediator: co-creation processes in transdisciplinary and trans-sectoral research. Organizers: Agnese Cretella and Cordula Scherer
12.00 - 13.00 (CET)	Lunch break [including optional access to both facilitated and unfacilitated virtual lunch break informal meet-&-greet/ chat rooms]

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 765389.

13.00 - 14.30 (CET)	Session 3 – “Never eat alone!” Food related networks and movements. Chair: To be confirmed Developing Living Systems for Agroecological Organising and Movement-Building (Alice Tahezadeh) Pass the salt, please. Exploring worldwide city-to-city networks on food (Amber Steyaert, Joost Dessen and Eline D'haene) Radical Imagination in Times of Crisis: Rural Visions of Food, Territory, and Autonomy in the Aftermath of Unnatural Disasters (Lucas Sebastián Worsdell)	Session 4 – “Change the system, not the climate.” Climate justice and climate education. Chair: To be confirmed Orientation, Community, and Urban Climate Justice (Gerald Taylor Aiken) Hacking climate education methodologies within narrow policy frames (Justus Wachs)	Workshop 2 – Role of senses in our food practices. Organizers: Mai Abbas and Sevgi Mutlu Siralcova	World café 1 - Operationalizing reflexivity for just sustainability transformations. Organiser: Viola Hakkarainen
14.30 - 14.50 (CET)	Festive opening of the online coffee break rooms with four Storytelling contributions Visual storytelling along the Vogelzangbeek stream: weaving worldmaking practices of nature associations and great reed warblers (Jolein Bergers, Bruno Notteboom and Viviana d'Auria) The Golden-Green Eagle (Anastasia Papangelou) Troubling ‘environmental justice’ through othering the ‘I’: An autoethnographic account of positionality to speculate enviro (Jingjing Guo) Participatory development of Green Infrastructure - From boundary concept to collective action (Francis Turkelboom, Jasmien Smets, Saskia Wanner, Geert De Blust and Wim Verheyden)
14.50 - 15.30 (CET)	Extended coffee break in the online coffee break rooms [including optional access to both facilitated and unfacilitated coffee break rooms]

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 765389.

Tuesday 8th of June 2021

[Note: All times are displayed for Central European Time (CET) Zone]

[Note: Further detailed information, including full abstracts for all parallel sessions will be made available in mid-May]

09.30 - 10.20 (CET)	Keynote 2 by Moya Kneafsley (Coventry University) – [Further details to be confirmed/announced soon]
	Keynote 3 – [Details to be confirmed/announced soon]
10.20 - 10.30 (CET)	Short coffee break
10.30 - 12.00 (CET)	Session 5 – “Let’s grow together!” Community food growing & alternative food practices. Chair: To be confirmed Everyday sustainable practices and coping strategies, in relation to food production and consumption (Magdalena Popławska) Stable Schools in Community Supported Agriculture (Alina Reinartz, Marius Rommel and Irene Antoni-Komar) Urban Crofts - Reappropriating Commons for Community Food Growing in Scotland (Evie Murray and Justus Wachs)	Session 6 – “Who’s our client?” Just design in urban and rural contexts. Chair: To be confirmed Architectural Design Justice: the civic engagement of an all men's homeless shelter in co-creation of their home. (Rosaura Noemy Hernandez Romero) Co-habitation in the valley of the Eure. A cartographic and design exploration into animal-inclusive design strategies and non-human agency. (Björn Bracke) Mapping cultural ecosystem services through the online PPGIS tool "My Green Place". The case of the Woluwe river. (Nohemi Ramirez Aranda)	Workshop 3 - PAR and the Transformative power of local - indigenous wisdom Organizers: Timmi Tillmann and Maruja Salas	Title and organizer to be confirmed
12.00 - 13.00 (CET)	Lunch break [To include optional access to both facilitated and unfacilitated virtual lunch break informal meet-&-greet/ chat rooms]
13.00 - 14.30 (CET)	Session 7 – “Stronger together.” Participatory approaches to (farming) innovation. Chair: To be confirmed Q methodology among smallholders: Challenges and best practices of a participatory approach	Session 8 – “More-than-talking.” The power of art and visuals in collaborative research. Chair: To be confirmed	Workshop 4 - Alternative and local food systems (ALFS) in a post-COVID World. Organizers: Gusztáv Nemes, High Chris and Éva Orbán	World café 2 - How to build common ground? The role of knowledge commons Organizers: Ana Margarida Esteves, Amelie Krug and Robert Hall

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 765389.

	(Juan Carlo Intriago Zambrano, Jan-Carel Diehl and Maurits W. Ertsen) The social of the material: co-design of institutions by drip irrigation technology and society in Turkey (Adnan Mirhanoglu, Maarten Loopmans, Gül Ozerol, Pieter Van Den Broeck and Jaime Hoogesteger)	Social science methods communication beyond reports and presentations: Collaborating with artists to engage stakeholders. (Ulrike Ehgartner) Talking methods, talking about methods: more-than-talking techniques in the Methods for Change project (Laura Pottinger and Amy Barron) Co-constructing situated knowledge for the circular reconversion of industry parks (Ellen Verbiest, Julie Marin, Bruno De Meulder and Andrew Vande Moere)
14.30 - 15.30 (CET)	Long coffee break in the online coffee break rooms [To include optional access to both facilitated and unfacilitated coffee break rooms]

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 765389.

Wednesday 9th of June 2021

[Note: All times are displayed for Central European Time (CET) Zone]

[Note: Further detailed information, including full abstracts for all parallel sessions will be made available in mid-May]

09.30 - 10.20 (CET)	Keynote 4 – [Details to be confirmed/announced soon]
10.20 - 10.30 (CET)	Short coffee break
10.30 - 12.00 (CET)	Session 9 – “We have a dream!” Rural aspirations. Chair: To be confirmed Towards Representative Resilience: The Power of Culture to Foster Local Resource Representation (Scott Davis) The Production of a Developmental Rural Space: A Rural Development Programme in China (Tian Tian) The relations between farmers’ land tenure security and agriculture production. An assessment in the perspective of smallholder (Uwacu Alban Singirankabo and Maurits Willem Ertsen) How do farmers experience art? A case study of Echigo-Tsumari Art Field, Japan (Kei Yan Leung)	Session 10 – “This land is our land.” Reclaiming urban spaces. Chair: To be confirmed Grey-backed Mining Bees, Citizen Movements and the Future of Friche Josaphat: Plan Bee Josaphat (Jolein Bergers, Bruno Notteboom and Viviana d'Auria) Breathing new futures in polluted environments (Taranto, Italy) (Maaret Jokela-Pansini and Elisabeth Militz) Covid-19 in vulnerable neighbourhoods; maintaining and supporting social resilience during physical distancing (Sander van Lanen, Simon Allemeersch, Evelyne Deceur, Klasien Horstman, Mare Knibbe, Griet Roets and Ceren Sezer)	Workshop 2 - Balancing roles and capacities in co-creating spaces of peer-to-peer learning Organizer: Alice Taherzadeh	Title and organizer to be confirmed
12.00 - 13.00 (CET)	Lunch break [To include optional access to both facilitated and unfacilitated virtual lunch break informal meet-&-greet/ chat rooms]
13.00 - 14.30 (CET)	Session 11 – “Learning across borders.” Case studies in transdisciplinary, participatory and transnational research. Chair: To be confirmed	Session 12 – “This is who we are.” The power of culture and collective identity. Chair: To be confirmed Bicycle Cities: racing towards sustainable mobility	Kaleidoscope - Posters and Lightening talks Chair: To be confirmed title missing (Agnese Cretella)	Campfire 1 – Between Academia and the Self: Research as an educational process Organizer: Zhanna Baimukhamedova

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No. 765389.

	Towards a Critical Sustainability Science? Participation of Disadvantaged Actors & Power Relations in Transdisciplinary Research (Agathe Osinski) How to conceptualize empirical research in large, transnational multi-actor projects? (Elke Rogge) Reenchantment of terraced landscapes - global movement - local initiatives (Timmi Tillmann)	(Talitta Reitz) Sustainability transformations in ecovillage communities (Ciska Ulug) Creating (Virtual) Cultures of Sustainability?: Towards the University "Ecovillage" (Olea Morris)	A pattern language for urban commons (Aimee Felstead) Co-creation: a creative and collaborative approach to dealing with multi-scalar planning issues (Maria Alina Radulescu) Dewilding King's Meads reserve (Dave Willis) Rendering research gently: attending to bodies, slowness and reciprocity through gentle methodologies (Laure Pottinger) Creative tension between co-optation and resistance: myth or reality? Insights from urban gardeners' experience in Rome (Chiara Certomà) Closer to the road (Claire Chevallier)
14.30 - 15.30 (CET)	Long coffee break in the online coffee break rooms [To include optional access to both facilitated and unfacilitated coffee break rooms]

Thursday 10th of June 2021

[Note: All times are displayed for Central European Time (CET) Zone]

10.30 - 12.30 (CET)	Policy roundtable on social justice, citizen empowerment and stakeholder engagement in urban food strategy trajectories & launch of the RE-ADJUSTool Organizer: Sara Smaal [A separate invitation about this event will be distributed, including information on maximum number of participants]
----------------------------	--